Whether you're in a new relationship or have a long-term love, nothing beats getting away from your everyday lives and escaping—just the two of you. Consider it a prime opportunity to reconnect and have some fun without any distractions (save for the occasional Instagram post). For some couples, it can mean cozying up at an inn in the Catskills, experiencing epic nature in Wyoming, relaxing by a pool in Palm Springs, or tackling an urban hotspot like Mexico City. Consider this list your inspiration to start planning a quick getaway—whether time alone for just the two of you means a weekend on the beach or an epic adventure.

The city's skyline shows off some amazing architectural feats, best seen through the Chicago Architecture Foundation, which offers walking tours and cruises around the river. If you're a first-time visitor, it's worth facing the crowds for a kissing photo op at the iconic Cloud Gate, just steps from the very-worthwhile Art Institute of Chicago. To see the bean-shaped sculpture—and the entire waterfront—from above, stop in for a bite or drinks at Cindy's, the rooftop bar at the Chicago Athletic Association hotel. For a dream tasting-
