SEASON'S EATINGS

Roasting Plant

Before we even get into this newsletter let's have a coffee. A short walk to Roasting Plant oughta do the trick. Coffee beans sourced from around the world brought right to your cup by a one-of-a-kind pneumatic tube system (yes, Willy Wonka-style). This "coffee lab" is run by a team of scientists that have a PHD in J-O-E. 81 Orchard Street

Cervo's

Nialls Fallon, Nick Perkins and Aaron Crowder nailed the easy going vibe of a Spanish afternoon with this new sweet spot on Canal Street. Seafood dishes from the Portuguese and Spanish coastline like Mussels Escabeche or Fried Squid are done to perfection. If seafood is not your thing stick to the Chicken Skewers with sweet onions and yogurt or their incredible Lamb Burger. An excellent wine list rounds out this laid-back newcomer that over-delivers on every level. 43 Canal Street

Tiny's and the Bar Upstairs

The coziest little townhouse/restaurant in New York City is about a 5 minute cab ride from our Lobby. Tiny's and the Bar Upstairs is a 3 story townhouse that dates back to 1810 over on West Broadway that has lasted the test of time. The original craftsmanship of the space with hand-pressed copper ceilings, antique wallpaper and a fireplace crackling in the back sets a warm and romantic scene. 135 West Broadway

Rice & Gold

We are DELIGHTED to announce the opening of Rice & Gold onsite at 50 Bowery. The restaurant, from Chef Dale Talde and the Three Kings Restaurant Group serves breakfast, lunch and dinner 7 days a week and brunch on weekends.

SHOP TO IT

Dover Street Market

8 floors of fashion that will have you ready for the runway. The most fashion-forward designers on Earth brought together under one roof from Commes des Garçons and Maison Margiela to Rick Owens and Supreme. London's original was on Dover Street but our's is on Lexington Avenue in Murray Hill. 160 Lexington Avenue. 160 Lexington Avenue

Yaf Sparkle

Can you feel that? This particular boutique has a "spark". Yaf and Torsten Flaegel run their passion project as a jewelry shop, but their handmade pieces are imbued with such love it's clear they're selling more than tangible treasure, it's magic. 158 Orchard St. & 249 Broome St.

4 JOLLY WAYS TO SPEND YOUR NYC HOLIDAYS

1 – Sunny & Brisk in NYC

This NYC day is for those sunny Winter afternoons when all you need is a chunky sweater and some shades. Head over to the West Side for a stroll amongst the art on the Highline, a peek in the stunning art galleries below, and lunch at the fabulous new L'Atelier de Joël Robuchon or charmingly Southern, Topsy Parson. Finish off this NYC day shopping at Chelsea Market, the Whitney Museum's eclectic gift shop or a quick pass through Barney's Chelsea.

2 – Local Flavor

From the heart of Chinatown we are minutes from New York's best neighborhoods. Iconic attractions like the Brooklyn Bridge and One World Trade Observatory, hidden treasures like Metrograph cinema and the uber-luxe Aire Ancient Baths and artistic institutes like the International Center of Photography and the New Museum are all part of our local flavor.

3 – Date Day

This NYC day requires a cute little elf by your side. Get the healthy stuff out of the way with a spin class at the Monster Cycle or a boxing class at Trinity Boxing Club. Now indulge at Vosges Haut-Chocolat or Roni-Sue's! Finish this date off with a helicopter tour over NYC and if you are lucky this Date Day will turn into Date Night ;)

4 - Holiday Hacks

If you've been there and done that, hack the holidays with these alternatives to NYC's same old song and dance: Skip the traditional musicals and witness the limited run of Springsteen on Broadway or LCD Soundsystem at Brooklyn Steel, wave goodbye to the horse drawn carriage and jump in a bike taxi around Central Park, kick the Rockettes out of Radio City and catch a show at the Brooklyn Academy of Music. Welcome to the NEW New York.
