SPEAK
art & design TO ME

- Designed by award-winning Philadelphia-based SLDesign
- Renovations by local Baltimore-based Schamu Machowski + Patterson Architects (SM+P Architects)
- The hotel's land was formerly owned by a keen art enthusiast with an extensive collection. Our 101 West Monument Street address boasts a rich past rooted in art, and was the site of the Baltimore Museum of Art's inaugural exhibition in 1923
- Hotel Revival embraces and embodies Baltimore - from all local craft beer to a local art program
- Guest rooms and public space feature art curated by Paradigm Gallery, from both local emerging and established artists
- Artists featured in the public space include California-based remix artist with a unique large-scale, collaged wallpaper comprised of hundreds of digital photographs and Baltimore Artstar, who will hand paint a floor-to-ceiling mural depicting the neighborhood's historic "Howard's Woods"
- Our intimate private dining room, "Friday Evening," is fully equipped to serve as a traditional board room and is named after Mary Elizabeth Garrett's circle of intellectual and influential women called "Friday Evening."

WHY YOU'LL
love us:

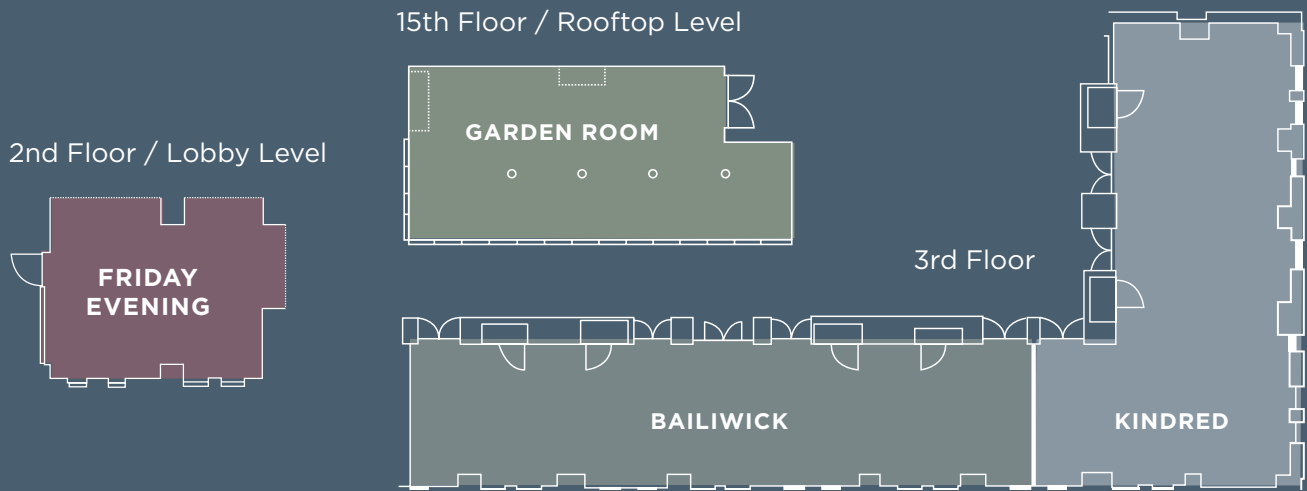

- Over 4,000 sq. feet of dynamic space, with solutions ideal for a variety of groups
- Event spaces feature natural light to gaze outside to the historic Mount Vernon neighborhood
- Two unique dining concepts - Square Meal, the hotel's signature lobby-level restaurant and market, and Topside rooftop restaurant and bar feature distinct views and from-scratch cuisine by Executive Chef Wilbur Cox
- Feel like you're dining alfresco with tropical flowers and vintage furniture in our intimate Garden Room
- Three multi-functional secret rooms for singing at the top of your lungs - each boasting 100 sq. feet, perfect for Sunday Game Ticket, video conferencing, or private karaoke
- Our Miss Mary Suite pays homage to Mary Elizabeth Garret, the original land owner and daughter of the President of B&O Railroad. It's a stunning room for entertaining with two rooms and an 8-plus seat boardroom table
- 107 guestrooms sport custom artwork and spectacular monument and city views, curated by Paradigm Galleries
